SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

As of July 1951 the land reform program in the East River area of Kwangtung was suspended. All land reform personnel were appointed tax collectors, and were stationed in the villages to await the summer harvest.¹ In some cases, the grain has been collected before it has been dried. Maximum food storage to be permitted any one family was 500 catties.

1. Comment. For more information regarding the collection of the summer grain tax in Kwangtung,
